

Testimonial Form

Satisfied customers are the most important form of advertising a business can hope to have. If you received value from the services I rendered, I would greatly appreciate your assistance and generosity if you would be willing to provide written comments I can use in future promotional material for my business.

Consider addressing the type of service you received and any comments you have about the quality of the work and/or the results if applicable. Again, my thanks!

Comments

I hereby authorize (YOUR COMPANY NAME) to use my name, business name and above comments in marketing materials designed to promote their services. I understand my comments may be included in brochures, web site material, emails, etc.

Check here if you would also be willing to take occasional reference calls from prospective clients who want to speak with someone about my work.

Referrals

Know of someone else who could benefit from my services? Kindly provide their name, and I will send a polite email or letter explaining that you suggested we provide them with free information. There will be no other follow-up (no emails or phone calls) unless that individual responds by asking for additional information. Thanks in advance for your assistance.
